RICHARDSON, Texas (February 5, 2018) — Service King Collision Repair Centers®, one of the fastest growing providers of high-quality automotive repair service in the U.S., today announced the company has officially opened its 43rd California location. The announcement comes as the organization finalized a deal to partner with Izzie's Body and Frame in West Sacramento.

The repair center is located at 1120 Shore St. and, as part of the deal, will transition operations to Service King immediately.

"We are proud to continue our steady growth across the state of California and particularly the addition of this new location to the Service King family," said Wesley McAlester, Service King Market Vice President. "Since opening our first location in the Sacramento area in 2014, it has been our mission to grow Service King into the collision repair operator of choice for our customers and business partners. We are excited about this new location and look forward to providing the Sacramento community with an enhanced network of high-quality collision repair service."

The company has grown quickly across the greater Sacramento area opening three new locations in 2017. All Service King locations provide customers with a best-in-class repair experience and back all work with a written lifetime warranty.
