RICHARDSON, Texas (November 20, 2017) — Service King Collision Repair Centers®, one of the nation's fastest-growing and most trusted providers of high-quality automotive repair service, today announced the opening of a new location in Little Rock, Arkansas. The repair center is located at 1403 Rebsamen Park Road near downtown Little Rock and continues Service King's ongoing national growth strategy.

With the new repair center, Service King now grows to seven Arkansas locations and a total of 331 in 24 states across the U.S.

"This is a proud moment for the Service King family as we open the doors to this great facility in the heart of Little Rock," said Patrick Matthews, Service King Market Director for Central Arkansas. "We look forward to providing local customers and insurance partners with a best-in-class collision repair service and experience."

The 19,000+ square-foot facility, formerly a local Mercedes Benz dealership, has been custom designed and outfitted to suit Service King's high-quality repair operations and will now employ about 30 teammates. The repair center provides the capacity to repair about 125 vehicles per month.

Service King, with more than 40 years of experience in the industry, provides high-quality repairs to all makes and models on the road while backing its work with a written lifetime warranty.
